SNOW STORM HEAVIEST IN MANY YEARS

Steam Roads Suffer, While the Traction Service is Badly Crippled.

SNOW WAS GENERAL OVER WIDE AREA OF COUNTRY

Many Schools Forced To Close On Account of Coal Shortage.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Jan. 15.—Ohio today was digging itself out from the heaviest snow fall of the winter. The snow, which fell early last evening, greatly impeded steam and electric railroads and tied up traction service in many cities of the state.

The heaviest snow fall in the state was recorded by the weather bureau in Columbus, where 7.2 inches fell. Toledo had the lightest with 3.6 inches. Other cities recorded: Cleveland 6 inches, Cincinnati 6.5 inches, Dayton 6 inches.

The center of the heavy snow storm seemed to have been over Kentucky, the weather bureau announced. Lexington, Ky., reported 12.8 inches and Louisville 11.4 inches. Nashville, Tenn., had 10.4 inches and Evansville, Ind., had 19 inches. Parkersburg, W. Va., reported 4 inches and Pittsburgh 8.2 inches.

As a result of the heavy snow, through trains were running hours late in Ohio today and local trains were greatly delayed.

CINCINNATI IS FACING SERIOUS SITUATION.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cincinnati, Jan. 15.—Six and one-half inches of snow has fallen in this city within the last twenty-four hours and the citizens awoke today to find traffic again interrupted and only a few managed to reach their work on scheduled time.

Combined with this condition, about one-half of the schools failed to open their doors today on account of the lack of fuel to heat the buildings while numerous manufacturing concerns reported their fuel supply running so low that unless more coal is received within twenty-four hours numerous enterprises will be forced to close down temporarily.

There will be a meeting of the city fuel administration with Mayor Galvin today and ways and means of containing business as well as again opening the schools will be discussed. Secretary C. R. Hebble of the county fuel administration stated that the city was facing the most serious situation of the winter and that drastic measures to conserve the supply now on hand must be taken.

The headquarters of the Anti-Saloon League in this city made public today a letter that had been addressed to the county fuel administration and the mayor asking that all of the saloons in Hamilton county be closed and that the fuel and power used to heat these be utilized in heating the schools and thereby permitting them to open.

CLEVELAND RECOVERING.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cleveland, Jan. 15.—Recovering from the gales and zero weather of last week, Cleveland today faced a new fight against a heavy snow storm. City and interurban electric lines were hard hit, operation on schedules being impossible owing to huge snow drifts on tracks. Trains on all railroads in and out of Cleveland are several hours late.

The municipal lighting plant, which was shut down yesterday on account of lack of coal, reported plenty of coal on hand today. Factories which were deprived of current (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3.)

MAJOR GARDNER'S BODY WILL LIE IN STATE AT CAPITOL

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Macon, Ga., Jan. 15.—Preparations were complete here today to take to Washington the body of Major Augustus Peabody Gardner, former Massachusetts congressman, who died of pneumonia at Camp Wheeler late yesterday. It was planned that Mrs. Gardner, accompanied by Major Keenan of the 106th sanitary division, should leave Macon at 11 o'clock taking the body to Washington, where it will lie in state. Burlington will be made later in Arlington cemetery.

Shortly after the outbreak of war, Mr. Gardner gave up his seat in congress, where he was known as a staunch advocate of military preparedness, to go into the army and was commissioned a colonel. At his own request he was reduced to the rank of major in order that he might see more active service.

Major Gardner contracted a severe cold a fortnight ago on the rifle range here and last week pneumonia developed. Mrs. Gardner came here from her home in Hamilton, Mass., and was with him until shortly before the end came. She suffered a temporary collapse yesterday and was under the care of a physician for a time.

"Boss" McAdoo of the railroads has appointed a proven "live wire" as his new private secretary. The man is Oscar A. Price, auditor of the interior department.

NEW BILL WOULD ADD 700,000 MEN TO THE DRAFT LIST

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Jan. 15.—At the request of the war department today Chairman Chamberlain of the senate military committee introduced a bill for the registration for military duty of all men who have become 21 years of age since June 5, 1917, when the draft law went into effect.

Another bill which Senator Chamberlain introduced at the request of the administration would provide for furnishing national army men for harvesting crops and other agriculture duty.

Another bill would put the quota of the states on the basis of available men in the first class instead of on population.

In determining upon the registration of men who have become 21 since the draft law was enacted, the war department has rejected any plan to raise the age limits of the draft to take in men more than 31.

Registration of men who have become 21 since the draft law was enacted, was recommended in the recent report of Provost Marshal General Crowder, one of the means by which a supply of men for the national army might be assured without taking those who might have others dependent upon them.

It could be done, also, the provost marshal general pointed out, by extending the age limits above the present line of 31. The war department has adopted the first suggestion.

It is estimated that it will add about 700,000 men to the draft available each year.

Congressmen have been advised that further legislation would be necessary to perfect and carry on the draft and the passage of Senator Chamberlain's bill with administration support is expected promptly in both houses.

Another bill introduced by Senator Chamberlain would provide a distinctive badge or button for exempted men.

The bill changing the basis of state quota is believed to provide a more equitable system as it will exclude entirely enemy aliens from the basis. Enemy aliens were included in the basis for the first draft and there was much complaint. Heavy enemy alien populations in some congested districts forced Americans to army duty regardless of exemption claims to make up district quotas.

The bill to permit troops to go to agricultural work merely would authorize the secretary of war to furnish food for civilian duty. It is known, however, that the war department intends to use the authority principally to provide men for harvest time and other agricultural work vital to the food supply.

To facilitate collection of private insurance policies held by troops, another bill will require private insurance companies to accept the official army record as proof of death of men among the army insured. It is designed to meet the cases of men reported missing to which there is no actual proof of death. In case of payment by insurance companies upon policies held by men reported missing and who later should appear, the bill provides for reimbursement to the insurance companies by the government.

Exemption of the government from payment of the new war tax on automobiles is the purpose of another bill introduced by Senator Chamberlain to deal principally with the large government purchase of motor trucks.

Arrangements have been made by the war department to fill from the second draft some time this spring the extensive vacancies in the coast artillery caused by the organization of provisional regiments of mobile heavy artillery for service in France.

A limited number of men who have particular aptitude for the special work of the corps were obtained from the first draft but there is still a deficiency of several thousand. Unless some unforeseen urgency develops, organization of regiments for foreign service in the corps will not be carried any further than to complete the units now in process of development.

PRIORITY IN MOVEMENT OF FUEL SUPPLY

Bunker Ships With Army
Supplies, Tied Up in Harbor, Released.

COAL FOR HOUSEHOLDERS IS FIRST CONSIDERATION

Plans For Coal Distribution
To Meet Famine Are Being Pushed.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Jan. 15.—Movement of coal to relieve the shortage in the northeast and bunker ships loaded with army supplies tied up in New York harbor went forward today under the first priority arrangement made since the government took control of the railroads.

The plan of limited preferential shipments announced by Director General McAdoo was put into operation by the railroad managements without issuance of formal priority orders and included food as well. It was found necessary because of interruption of traffic by recent blizzards in the middle west.

Action in the New York situation was taken on the advice of A. H. Smith, assistant director in charge of Eastern lines, who reported that 113 ships were held in harbor awaiting bunker coal. Director McAdoo's priority instructions contemplated:

First, the movement of coal for householders and vital public utilities; second, food; third, coal for bunkering ships loaded for American armies abroad and for the allies.

At the same time Fuel Administrator Garfield issued similar orders for the distribution of coal putting the needs of householders, public utilities and an Atlantic shipping ahead of war industries and industries of other classes.

The fuel administrator's plan for general coal distribution to meet the eastern famine will probably apply to all states east of the Mississippi river and will be put into effect by state fuel administrators on the return to Washington of P. B. Noyes, head of the administration's conservation division.

Industries other than those engaged in war production were listed in the last class of the fuel administration's scheme and probably will be closed down until more urgent needs are supplied. Their supplies of coal even may be requisitioned for distribution among the favored classes. The less essential industries also may be classified further as it probably will be found necessary to keep some of them running more steadily than others.

TOLEDOAN WOUNDED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 15.—The name of G. S. Pettigrew of Toledo, O., appears in the list of wounded in today's Canadian casualty list.

IRISH HOME RULE CONVENTION WILL BE HELD TUESDAY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Dublin, Monday, Jan. 14.—The Irish home rule convention will hold its thirty-first sitting Tuesday. All the proceedings of the grand committee of twenty now are before the convention and a definite conclusion should be reached, it is believed, and its announcement may be accepted almost at once.

Whether or not the convention succeeds in bringing the Ulster unionists in to an Irish parliament, Irishmen think the proceedings have accomplished a great deal in bringing together the National Unionists of the south and west, and determining the principles on which Irishmen of all sections could come together in a large scheme of autonomy.

It is well known that a substantial agreement has been reached by the representatives of nationalist Ireland and the unionists outside Ulster and labor.

There is rumor of an impressive majority report by the delegates of all creeds and politics outside of Ulster. The press of Belfast remains as steadfast as ever in opposition to any compromise with home rule.

MAY ALDEN WARD KILLED IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cambridge, Mass., Jan. 15.—May Alden Ward, author, women's club leader, and lecturer, was almost instantly killed last night when the automobile in which she was riding collided with a trolley car.

Mrs. Ward was a direct descendant of John Alden and Priscilla Mullens of the old Plymouth colony days. She was born in Ohio, 65 years ago. She was former president of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's clubs, and for two years she was vice president of the General Federation of Women's clubs.

TO INVESTIGATE CHARGES.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Jan. 15.—Congressional investigation of "slandering charges" against the character of American troops abroad, alleged to have been circulated by the Anti-Saloon league, was proposed in a resolution today by Representative Cary of Illinois.

CAMOUFLAGE DEVELOPS WITH LEAPS AND BOUNDS: BIG GUNS AND EVEN ROADWAYS ARE CONCEALED

Above—A street in the vicinity of Rheims camouflaged by stage-like drops of brown burlap. Below—Greenery concealing French machine gun battery. Arrow points to mouth of one gun.

The development of the new war art of camouflage is astounding. It began with the successful hiding of a man or a small cannon and has reached the proportions where whole batteries of guns are successfully concealed and big, wide roadways are so "fixed up" that they cannot be seen.

MAY START STREET DEMONSTRATION IN CITY OF PETROGRAD

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Jan. 15.—Anti-Bolshevik parties in Russia, according to a dispatch to the Daily News from Petrograd are using the creation of a volunteer army by the Bolsheviks as the basis of an energetic agitation to turn the Petrograd garrison against the Lenin government.

Efforts also are being made to start street demonstrations in favor of the constituent assembly. If the efforts are successful, the dispatch adds, the results will be anarchy, which the Germans could wish nothing better.

CAILLAUX ARREST DUE TO LANSING

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Paris, Jan. 15.—The arrest yesterday of former Premier Caillaux was due principally to a cablegram from Secretary Lansing at Washington, saying that in 1915 M. Caillaux had been in communication with the Berlin foreign office.

Secretary Lansing's cablegram stated that the American representative at Buenos Aires had been able to establish that M. Caillaux, during his visit to Argentina in 1915, had been in communication with Count von Luxburg—then German minister to Argentina—with the object of concluding peace with Germany at any price, so as to permit the resumption of business. It is understood this evidence will be published in American newspapers.

M. Caillaux sailed for South America in November, 1914, going first to Brazil and then to Argentina. Something of a mystery was made of his trip. The general explanation was that he had been entrusted with an economic mission, but was reported that the French government's real purpose was to bring about his removal from France, on account of the feeling against him in certain quarters. Later, he made a visit to The Hague, which attracted attention because of the presence there at the same time of members of the German reichstag. Shortly afterward came his trip to Rome.

Count von Luxburg was dismissed as German minister to Argentina after discovery of the fact that he had been sending, through the Swedish legation at Buenos Aires, dispatches to the Berlin foreign office respecting German propaganda in South America and advising the "sinking without trace" of Argentine merchant vessels.

REFUSES TO COMMENT.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Jan. 15.—Secretary Lansing today refused to affirm or deny or comment upon the foregoing dispatch from Paris. There seems to be no doubt, however, that some such dispatch is contained in the captured Luxburg correspondence. Early today there was no immediate prospect of its being given out for publication here.

ADVOCATE CARRIERS LEARN THRIFT LESSON

On the day before Christmas The Advocate gave to each of its 40 carrier boys a Thrift card with four stamps attached. Yesterday six of the boys returned their cards filled with 16 stamps and turned them in with 12 cents each in exchange for a $5 interest-bearing War Savings certificate. At the same time each one of the boys started on his second card. Many of the other carrier boys have their Thrift cards almost ready to be exchanged for $5 stamps. Thus The Advocate carriers are not only learning the lesson of thrift and are creating a savings account but they are helping Uncle Sam to win the war.

DELIVERY OF COAL RETARDED BY ICE FLOES

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Jan. 15.—With more than 100 industrial plants in New York state already closed because of lack of fuel, hundreds of non-essential industries faced a similar situation when the new system of enforced coal distribution became effective today whereby hospitals, homes, public utilities and food producers had the first call on the rapidly dwindling supply.

The coal delivered in New York City yesterday was only half the daily amount needed, fuel administrators said. Of the 300,000 tons reported at or near terminals in New Jersey only 30,000 tons were distributed here.

To expedite distribution a new coal official will be named soon, whose duties will be to facilitate the movement of coal at docks and railroad terminals.

Ice floes in the harbor and adjacent waters continue to retard delivery.

AN ENTIRE FAMILY VICTIMS OF FIRE

Marion, O., Jan. 15.—Christopher Houk, wife and three children, were burned to death early this morning when their farmhouse, five miles west of here, was destroyed by fire of unknown origin.

Members of the family were sleeping in rooms on the second floor of the house—a two-story structure—when the fire broke out.

The fire, it is believed, broke out shortly after midnight and was not discovered by neighbors until the house was almost entirely destroyed. Up until 10 o'clock this morning, only one of the bodies had been found. It was the charred remains of the mother.

The three children who lost their lives were: Mabel, aged 14; Geneva, 9, and Clarence, 7.

Houk was a well-known farmer in this community.

POLICE SEIZE TWO BOXES BELONGING TO ALLEGED SPY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Baltimore, Md., Jan. 15.—Two large boxes filled with documents belonging to Lieutenant Walter Spoeremann, alleged German spy arrested at Norfolk and understood to be on his way to Baltimore for a hearing in the federal court, were seized by the police in a house in West Lafayette street. The papers were found in the room of Marius Asch, 31 years old, a German enemy alien. Asch was arrested.

At the office of U. S. Marshal Charles H. Stockman, Asch said that Spoeremann approached him the latter part of last month and asked him to take care of two boxes for him. He declared that he did not know the nature of the contents.

Asch was the second person to be arrested here in connection with the case. Frederick H. C. Spoeremann, a brother of Walter Spoeremann, was taken into custody last night. He was technically charged with violating the president's proclamation, by changing his residence without notice to the federal authorities. He denies having any connection with his brother's alleged activities.

PROPERTY VALUED AT HALF MILLION SWEEPED INTO RIVER

Gallipolis, Ind., Jan. 15.—Floating property, valued at more than $500,000, has been swept into the ice-packed Ohio river, eight miles south of here, and is in danger of being crushed to pieces. Thirty-five men are on the boats and barges and it is feared that unless aid reaches them immediately many will be killed.

Ice is piled high around many of the craft. The fleet, which was swept down out of the Kanawha river last night, consists of the steamers Otto Marnet, owned by Cincinnati; the Argand, C. C. Powner, Helen E. Relief, Charles C. Bower, Joe S. and several gasboats and barges. The Enterprise and the Point Pleasant drydocks—the latter one of the largest between Pittsburgh and New Orleans—also are in danger. River men say the gorge in this vicinity is the acutest in history.

Other boats are in perilous positions near here, including the Francis and the Greeland, which have broken loose and been carried to mid-stream.

TO CUT OUT ICE SUPPLY.

Columbus, Jan. 15.—While the mercury was flirting with the zero mark last night, the Columbus city council voted as a move in its re-trenchment campaign, to cut out the ice supply heretofore furnished all city department for cooling drinking water.

NOTED AIRMAN DEAD.

Amsterdam, Jan. 15.—The death of Vice Sergeant Max Muller, one of the most successful German airmen, is reported in a Munich dispatch to the Lokai Anzeiger of Berlin. Muller was killed in a fall resulting from a defect in his engine. He claimed 38 victories in aerial engagements.

HEAVY LOSSES INFLECTED ON THE GERMANS

Italians Gain Considerable
Advantage on Monte
Asolone Front.

GERMAN MILITARISTS ARE RAPIDLY GAINING CONTROL

The German Emperor and
Crown Prince Confer
With Leaders.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Rome, Jan. 15.—By an attack in the Monte Asolone region, on the northern front, the Italians have gained considerable advantages and inflicted very heavy losses on the enemy, the war office announces.

(Compiled from A. P. Dispatches.)
Italy's mountain fighters are showing their ability to cope with the difficult winter conditions on the Italian northern front and are scoring successes in local operations in important sectors.

One such operation was carried out yesterday in the Monte Asolone region, just east of the Brenta river, where the Austro-German wedge was pushed further during the early winter campaigning in an effort to outflank the dominating Monte Grappa. The Italian defensive was strengthened by this move and serious losses inflicted on the enemy.

Further east, near Monte Spinonda a further successful movement was effected while on the lower Piave river front an Italian attack east of Capo Sil resulted in the captured trenches which extended the Italian bridgehead. The Austrians launched repeated counterattacks but failed to dislodge the Italians from their new positions.

Control of the destinies of the German empire, press accounts from neutral countries agree, is passing into the hands of the militarists or the leaders who want to hold what has been gained by might and the sword. Chancellor von Hertling, the aged incumbent of the chief political offices, again is reported ill and preparing to resign, while the militarists and Pan-Germans are demanding the dismissal of Dr. von Kuehlmann, the foreign secretary, who has headed the German delegations at Brest-Litovsk.

In connection with the reported illness of the imperial chancellor, it is reported from Berlin that Count von Hertling's address before the main committee of the reichstag has been postponed for several days. It was said previously that the chancellor would answer the recent war aims statements of President Wilson and Premier Lloyd George before the main committee on Wednesday.

Coupled with these reports is the fact that the German emperor and the crown prince have been holding conferences with the political and military leaders. It is reported also that the German ministers to Denmark and Holland have arrived unexpectedly in Berlin. Indications are that the present turmoil within the German ruling class will result in the acceptance of a firm policy, either favoring the militarists or the more peaceful element, with the probability that the Pan-Germans will be victorious. The Socialist-Vorwarts believes a military dictatorship is the making.

No explanation has been vouchsafed by either the Germans or the Russians as to the reason behind the temporary halt in the peace negotiations. Nor has it been announced officially why the conferences, if continued, are to be resumed at Warsaw. A Bavarian newspaper says "Egyptian darkness ensueth" Germany's peace terms.

THREE KILLED BY BOMBARDMENT OF ENEMY FROM SEA

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Jan. 15.—Yarmouth was bombarded from the sea last night, it is announced officially. About twenty shells fell in the city. Three persons were killed and ten injured. The following official announcement was given out:

"Yarmouth was bombarded from the sea last night. Fire was opened at 10:55 p. m. and lasted about five minutes with some 20 shells falling into the town.

The latest reports state that three persons were killed and ten injured. The material damage done was not serious."

Attacks by German naval forces on English coast towns of which there were a number early in the war have been infrequent in recent months. The last previous occurrence of the kind officially reported was on September of last year. On that day a German submarine bombarded Scarborough, causing the death of three persons and the injury of five.

Yarmouth is on the North Sea 115 miles northeast of London. It is a city of some 50,000 inhabitants with important shipbuilding and fishing industries.

Warren, O., Jan. 15.—Warren was buried in ten inches of snow today. Two schools were closed for lack of coal.

UNABLE TO GET TO WORK.
(Associated Press Telegram)
Marion, O., Jan. 15.—With all rail traffic completely blocked, Marion today is trying to struggle out of its worst snow fall in many years. Hundreds were unable to get to their work today.

150,000 MEN IDLE OWING TO COAL SHORTAGE IN CHICAGO.
(Associated Press Telegram)
Chicago, Jan. 15.—Nearly 150,000 men were idle today in Chicago and nearby manufacturing districts on account of a fuel shortage, caused by the heavy snow fall which demoralized railway traffic last Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

Among the industries which were practically at a standstill were three of the largest packing plants in Chicago and many steel mills in the Colimet and Gary districts which are working on government contracts. Thousands of the packing house employees who were laid off yesterday were put to shoring snow in order that the railway tracks might be cleared sufficiently to admit shipments of coal into the plants today. It was announced that the packers expected to resume during the day, but the situation at the steel mills was said to be more serious and that operations might be suspended for at least two days yet.

Railroad officials today said that passenger traffic on trunk lines practically would be normal by tomorrow, but that it would take several days to clear away the accumulation of freight cars.

A snow storm which was forecast by the weather bureau to strike Chicago last night passed some distance south and today appeared to be moving eastward.

"The storm is just as severe as the one last week," said the forecaster. "Seventeen inches of snow fell in seven hours in Evansville, Ind."

GERMANY IS IN THROES OF BITTER POLITICAL FIGHT

(Associated Press Telegram)
Amsterdam, Jan. 15.—Evidence of the strained situation as regards war aims continue to appear in the German newspapers. The Leipzig Volks Zeitung says a meeting of the annexationists fatherland party at Jena was broken up by the independent socialists who after passing a vote for "a general peace by understanding," threw out the members of the fatherland party.

While anti-German petitions and resolutions are being rushed to the emperor by the militarists, other currents are active. This is instanced by a meeting at Frankfurt on Sunday of free citizens committee, which adopted a resolution to the effect that a lasting peace which would safeguard Germany's vital economy interests would be possible only on the basis of a policy of conciliation in the sense of the peace resolution adopted by the reichstag. The committee expressed the hope that from the negotiations with Russia might result a peace which by honest adherence to the principle of self determination of peoples, might exclude the danger of new conflicts.

WILL INVESTIGATE CAMP CONDITIONS; RESULT OF DEATH

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Jan. 15.—As a direct result of sentiment in the house over the death from pneumonia of former Representative Gardner at Camp Wheeler, Georgia, Representative Gard of Ohio, today introduced a resolution to direct the military committee to investigate camp conditions.

Camp site selections, sufficiency of clothing, hospital facilities, and treatment of sick soldiers, would be investigated under the resolution. Many of Major Gardner's friends are supporting the movement.

ROTARY CLUB MEETING.
At today's session of the Rotary club a scholarly and very interesting address was given by J. W. McKinney of Canton, who is with the Alexander Hamilton Institute. Letters were read from Lieutenant John S. Flock of Camp Sherman, and Wm. E. Hopkins, who is doing community work at Houston, Tex.

ORDERS INSURANCE IN FORCE.
(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Jan. 15.—Because of the extension of the submarine war zone, Secretary McAdoo today ordered government life insurance in force for officers and crews of American merchantmen traveling between American ports and the Cape Verde islands, north of Sierra Leone. Sailing vessels will not be insured.

MUSIC FOR THE WAR TANK
Graphophone Records Are Gift of Woman; French Officer Requests Bowling Equipment for His Men.

For the amusement of soldiers probably no more unique donation has been made than that of $50 from a woman for graphophone records to equip a tank. There is something grotesque about music emanating from this weird iron caterpillar, states a trench correspondent.

Other donations have not lacked an element of the picturesque, as, for instance, the supplying of a hospital in Paris which was filled with African troops, with 700 fans. They were so appreciated during the summer that the hospital appealed for more. An accordion was sent to fill a specific demand.

One French officer requested games for his men. What sort? In one regiment in which most of the soldiers were fathers of families the preference, for some reason or other, was for bowling. The trench, it must seem, does not make a bad alley if a few balls and pins will live a dull period. Possibly a change of noise is agreeable.

One of the Meanest Men.
A lady who went to join her husband in his new western home was surprised to find that among the young ladies of the place he had the reputation of being "the meanest man ever was." Wishing to know the reason, she asked a bevy of damsels one day, when one of them spitefully replied: "Because he came out here looking spruce and young, and went on till all the girls got interested in him, and then he up and sent for you. And that was the first we knew that he was married! Mean? I guess so!"

Knew His Bible.
On board a steamer "somewhere on the Atlantic" a senile sailor boy was having a session at the rail when an officer came along.

"Hello! What's that you're doing?" said the officer mockingly.

"I'm rendering unto the sea, sir, the things that are the sea's, sir," gasped the soldier as soon as he could speak.

"The good die young," quoted the Wise Guy. "And yet we are told a good beginning makes a bad ending," complained the Simple Mug.

Blotches—"I hate a man who is always talking about his achievements. He might employ his time to a better advantage." Stobbs—"Yes, he might be talking about ours."

OPPORTUNITY FOR TRACTOR OWNERS IN THIS COUNTY

International Harvester Company Will Hold Free Tractor Schools Here, Feb. 19 and 20.

Of all the machines a farmer owns, none is more important than his tractor. Especially is this true this year. Tractors must be in condition to work day and night if necessary to make possible the increased production of food we need. There must be no delays due to unsatisfactory operation, no loss from misunderstanding.

To this end the International Harvester Company of America proposes to hold tractor schools in various parts of the country in order that their users may get the best possible service out of their tractors.

One of these schools will be held at the convention room in the court house. The sessions will open promptly at 8 a. m., Feb. 19 and 20. This school will be absolutely free to all who care to attend, whether they are tractor owners or not. Nothing will be offered for sale at these schools and there will be no selling talks. A course of instruction in how a tractor works and how to keep it working will be strictly adhered to.

The instructors are practical tractor and engine men and the course is laid out on large charts illustrated with clear diagrams and described in simple terms. It takes up the reasons why an engine operates, what takes place within the cylinder of an engine, symptoms that indicate approaching trouble, how to look for trouble and not overlook it, how to get the best possible service from a tractor or engine, new uses for tractors and many other subjects of special interest to men in this locality.

Those who attend the school will be encouraged to ask questions on any subject in connection with tractors and engines. These questions will be answered at the end of each school session. There will be demonstrations with engines and tractors themselves.

To be sure that every one who attends the school carries home with him every point brought out there, a book containing all subjects discussed at the school will be given every man. Every farmer who owns a tractor or engine should attend this school but, more important still, he should bring with him the man who operates his tractor. Plan now to be present at every session of the school, for the men who do this will get the greatest benefit out of it. Don't forget the date, Newark, Feb. 19 and 20, and be sure to be there.

Buds and Flowers in Cooking.
The French Canadians are said to use the acid flowers of the redbud, or Judas tree, in salads, while the buds and tender pods are packed in vinegar. Honey locust pods, often locally called "honey-shucks," contain a sweetish, thick, cheese-like pulp, which is often eaten. Those of the mesquite furnish the Mexicans and Indians with a nutritious food. The Creoles of Louisiana, famous for their cookery, are reported to use the young buds of the sassafras as a substitute for okra in thickening soups.

Why Not Wear a Sign?
Pat, being on his holidays, was one day strolling through the streets of New York, when he saw the figure of a man standing before a shop. There was a card pinned to the man's coat on which was written, "Reduced to 50 cents."

Pat somewhat carelessly approached the figure and exclaimed: "Begorra, sir, you're safe enough; I'm reduced to 30 cents."

She sauntered into the fruit store. "Do you keep dates?" she asked. "Sure," replied the fresh clerk. "Where shall I meet you?"

NERVOUSNESS ON THE DECLINE

Doctors Encouraged, They Hold Out Hope for All.

"Nothing wrong but my nerves," We hear it at home, at work and everywhere. Certainly, nervousness is a disease. A man or woman might better have a broken leg than a shattered, run down nervous system.

Nervousness and worry drains the nerve cells and centers of all their strength and vitality, then you get your sleepless night, poor blood, nervousness, worry and fear that goes with a worn-out, broken-down nervous system. The better doctors of today know just what to do in cases of this kind. They know that a few weeks' use of Phosphated Iron rarely fails to strengthen, stimulate and feed the Phosphate-hungry nerve centers.

Phosphated Iron certainly does take hold. The way the majority of patients come back is remarkable. You can almost see their nerves grow steady, strong and peaceful. What a change in appearance, too. The cheeks become filled out and flushed with the healthy ruddy glow that only pure, red, ironized blood can give, eyes sparkle, their step has the spring and swing of youth and their whole system seems to be alive with energy and good spirits.

HEAD OF MINERS WOULD RATIFY THE WAGE AGREEMENT

(Associated Press Telegram)
Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 15.—With addresses of welcome by officials of the state and city, and the reading of a letter from President Wilson expressing his good will toward the coal diggers of the country, the biennial of the United Mine Workers of America convened here today, the delegates in attendance representing more than 400,000 organized men in the industry. For the first time in many years an increase in wages will not be the paramount business, although many phases relating to the present standard will come before the delegates.

The convention, according to its leading officers, will ratify the bituminous and anthracite wage scales agreed to in conference in Washington several months ago despite the fact that there is talk of some opposition.

President Frank J. Hayes of the United Mine Workers of America reviewing activities of the organization at the biennial convention of the union today, urged the delegates to ratify the wage agreements entered at Washington with the bituminous and anthracite operators and sanctioned by the federal government. The agreements now in effect call for increases in wages and extend the present contracts two years, from April 1, 1918.

The report reviews the litigation in which the union is involved particularly the West Virginia where in the organizers of the United Mine Workers of America were enjoined from soliciting employees of a coal company to become members of the organization. The supreme court of the United States sustained the injunction. The report says:

"Decisions of this character, are calculated, if not designed to destroy our organization and return coal mining conditions to the chaotic state that once prevailed; and we have the right in the name of our patriotic service to the country as well as our economic welfare to protest against these revolutionary decisions and to insist if this be the law of the courts that it shall be corrected by legislation."

"In this crisis the Sherman anti-trust act and other federal statutes are set aside to permit the formation of exporting trusts and similar pools, some of it by administrative action and some by express congressional laws. It seems, however, to be declared an open season by the federal judiciary for hunting labor union; and this convention should not adjourn without taking some decisive steps for laying before congress the situation raised by these decisions and of securing legislative assurances against their repetition."

MAY CHARGE WIDOW WITH THE MURDER

(Associated Press Telegram)
Chicago, Jan. 15.—Acting under orders of the coroner, the police last night removed the body of Harry S. Miles from a railway station where it had been taken for shipment to Indianapolis, and detained Mrs. Miles, a widow of five days.

Miles was a clothing designer and died from a bullet wound last Wednesday. An inquest was held on Thursday, the coroner's jury returning a verdict of suicide. Testimony of the widow was that she and her husband had been separated, and that he called for a reconciliation, but had quarreled and that he shot himself.

Mrs. N. E. Miles, the dead man's mother, visited the coroner yesterday and made affidavit that her son had been murdered. Reopening of the coroner's inquest was ordered and the police notified to prevent removal of the body and also to detain Mrs. Miles, the widow, for questioning.

NEAR SOLUTION OF THE BANK ROBBERY

(Associated Press Telegram)
Cleveland, Jan. 15.—Police today declared they were near a solution of the robbery of the Gordon Park branch of the Garfield Savings bank which was looted of $16,000 by five men on Dec. 21. According to a statement of Chief of Detectives Rabshaw, confessions have been made by Harry and Lazarus Joseph, brothers, both of whom are under arrest. Detectives started today on the trail of three other men. It was also said they would recover $5,000 of the stolen money.

WHY LEAVE OUT OUR OWN STATE?

New York, Jan. 15.—As a means of conserving fuel throughout the eastern states which have been vitally affected by the coal shortage, it was announced today that federal fuel administrators have recommended that President Wilson declare Monday a legal holiday throughout this territory for the next eight or ten weeks.

The proposed holiday, it was estimated, would save 450,000 tons of coal in the territory in which it was observed, or 4,500,000 tons if observed for ten weeks. The territory will include all the New England states, New York, New Jersey, Maryland and Pennsylvania.

GRAND CHANCELLOR DEAD.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Marietta, O., Jan. 15.—Dr. E. A. Coll, grand chancellor of the Knights of Pythias of Ohio and for many years pastor of the Unitarian church here, died late last night at a hotel at Athens, where he was taken ill last week. His illness puzzled physicians of Marietta and Athens and was finally pronounced to be traumatic poisoning. Dr. Coll was 60 years old.

LIEUT. PERIGORD BRINGS A MESSAGE TO ALL AMERICA

Great Crowds Hear French Army Officer at Two Meetings Last Night.

Monday evening, before the largest audience that ever gathered at the High school auditorium, Lieut. Paul Perigord brought a picture of the great war that only one who has been in the conflict can bring.

Lieut. Perigord appeared on the platform dressed in a French field uniform, and for the benefit of the small boys, he explained the different bars and medals.

He brought a picture of a charge "over the top." He had told his men that on the morrow they were to go over and said, "I could see my boys were thinking—dreaming of home, and of loved ones, then, as some great power had swept down the trench, there came an expression of determination, to go over, may be, to death. On the following day they went over and the lieutenant said, 'When I went out over the top of the trench, I knew that every man was behind me, ready, yes, willing, to give up his life for his country's great cause. Out of the six thousand men who went out but fifteen hundred returned, but with them came victory.'"

That is the spirit, the spirit of willingness, willing to give all for the one great cause, Freedom throughout the world.

The lieutenant says for every one of the people who stay at home to not eat meat on meatless days, nor wheat on wheatless days, conserve everything, buy Liberty bonds and above all things, write to our boys "over there" and let them know that we are with them in everything and in every way.

When Lieut. Perigord left the United States in August, 1914, one of his former professors at Columbia gave him a small silk American flag, and this flag he carried through all the great battles of the war, trusting that the United States would come to the aid of France. Then one morning last spring there appeared a new flag in the trenches—a flag familiar to all—our own, our "Stars and Stripes," from the Atlantic to the Adriatic there was one great cry, a cry of joy and faith, "Long live, long live the United States."

"If your United States had not entered into this conflict," said Lieut. Perigord, "you would have been dishonored people in a dishonorable nation. You would have handed your flag to the next generation, stained with the blood of thousands of brave boys, your brothers across the sea, never again could you have song that most glorious air containing those words, 'Over the land of the free, and the home of the brave.'"

The lieutenant told the mothers who had given their sons to the country, to trust their government for the boys would be well taken care of; and should they not return, they have given their lives in the most notable cause of all time.

In speaking of the German people he asks that we forgive them, as the French are ready to do. It is not the people, they know no better, the rulers are to blame. They know that they had the greatest military machine of all time and were just waiting for a chance. It came. The allied nations were not prepared. They lost thousands. The inner circle of rulers had struck—and as the women and children were really the heart of the allied nations they struck there—not in a spirit of vengeance, but by careful aid plans they made thousands homeless, without food, and really tore the very heart out of France. But now the French have taken new life, because America is going to pay back her debt.

General Pershing said at Lafayette's tomb, "Lafayette, we are here."

"Some are trying to undermine the faith America has in France by saying we are imperialists and selfish," stated Lieut. Perigord. "But would you call such women as those who work in our shops all day, then go home to homes without men—for the only men left are those too old or too young to serve—and write their loved ones to be brave and strong. Would you call such men as follow me into the trenches faithless?"

Interesting to note how Lieut. Perigord received his commission. He enlisted as a private, and in the first charge, all the officers of his company were killed. The lieutenant, then a private, was standing by his captain's side when he was shot down with a bullet through his lung, he handed Perigord his sword and said: "Continue the charge."

With Perigord as leader, the Germans were captured and returned to camp. The following morning the General asked for the officers of Perigord's company, and Perigord told him they were killed, and then related the story. The general answered, "You keep the sword and company, also."

"Uncle Sam has many commissions to be won in this manner," stated Lieut. Perigord.

Preceding Lieut. Paul Perigord's lecture the Glee club, under the leadership of Prof. Klopp, rendered a number of beautiful patriotic selections. The High school orchestra also played several numbers.

After the lecture at the High school, Lieut. Perigord delivered a short talk at the Auditorium theatre for the benefit of those who could not gain admittance to the high school. Approximately 2,500 people attended the first lecture and possibly between 1200 and 1400 the second.

The Rotary club is to be highly complimented on bringing such a man as Lieut. Perigord to our city.

HOW TO GET RELIEF FROM CATARRH

If you have catarrh, catarrhal deafness, or head noises go to your druggist and get 1 oz. of Parlin's (double strength), take this home add to it 1/4 pint of hot water and 4 oz. of granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful 4 times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Closed nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat.

It is easy to make, tastes pleasant and costs little. Every one who has catarrh should give this treatment a trial. You will probably find it is just what you need. T. J. Evans.—Advertisement.

RACE CONSERVATION GREATEST PROBLEM

The Ohio Board of Administration at Columbus, is distributing, free of all charge through the District School Superintendents and Town Principals, to the Public Schools this week 50,000 copies of a book just published, entitled "The Greatest Problem of the Race—Its Own Conservation."

This book is dedicated to higher ideals and purer living. It discusses frankly and clearly the importance of selecting a life partner whose blood is clean, and whose offspring will likely be free from deafness, blindness, feeble-mindedness, insanity, intemperance, criminality, tuberculosis, or epilepsy.

This book is intended to aid in producing a sturdier stock of American citizens. It shows the dangers of transmitting to children any constitutional disease either parent may have, and likewise any evil tendency.

It is a very valuable book and should be read by all young men and women and by fathers and mothers.

The books are to be placed in the schools by the District Superintendents, Principals and Superintendents and passed from family to family. They remain the property of the schools in which they are placed. Ask for the book if it has not yet been distributed.

Those outside of the schools or those in the school who wish to own their own copy may have one by sending 15 cents with name and address to the State Board of Administration, Columbus, O.

FOOD ADMINISTRATOR ENLISTS THE GROCERS THROUGH WHOLESALERS

Representatives of the different wholesale and jobbing grocery companies canvassed the city Monday enlisting the retail grocers service of the United States Food Administration, the object of which is to forward the conservation of foodstuffs such as apples, bread, butter, eggs, flour, etc.

It is the desire of the administration to enlist every retail grocer in the United States as a member and for each grocer to display a poster, which is furnished, which shows them to be a member of the United States Food Administration. Each member pledges himself to give his customers the benefit of fair and modest prices, selling at no more than a reasonable profit above cost to the merchant.

The spirit of the jobbing houses is to be highly commended and not a single grocer should hesitate "to do this bit." The cards left by the salesmen should be signed and returned to the United States Food Administration without delay.

B. &amp; O. SCHEDULES BEING MAINTAINED

Regardless of the heavy snowfall the train on the Baltimore & Ohio are running nearly on schedule time. Yesterday morning the Shawnee train left Newark as usual and got as far as Green's Crossing, this side of the National Roads, where it was stuck in a snowdrift. Help was secured from the nearby farm houses and together with the crew they started to clear the tracks. After working for sometime it was found impossible to proceed and an engine was dispatched from Newark and the train returned without making the run.

BOY SCOUTS WILL AID GOVERNMENT AS MESSENGERS

The Boy Scouts of the nation have been designated by President Wilson as the government dispatch messengers. The Boy Scouts over the country will act as the distributing agency for the vast amount of literature, educational and instructive, which is being issued by the committee of public information at Washington.

President Wilson is desirous of having the people of the United States know why we are at war, and what is needed for the successful conduct of the war. Literature setting forth this knowledge is being issued by the government and in order to get it to the people and into the homes it will be distributed through the Boy Scouts, and after it is read the householder will be asked to pass it on to another person.

During the present week the boys will distribute a pamphlet containing President Wilson's flag-day address.

SHOULD PLACE YOUR COAL ORDERS THROUGH FUEL ADMINISTRATOR

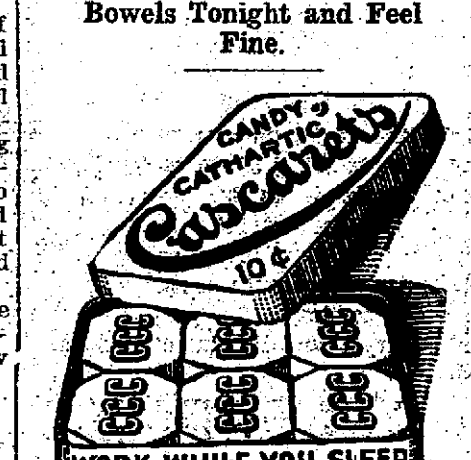

In placing your orders for coal call the Licking County Fuel Administrator's Office, Auto 1975, Bell 258. All orders taken are delivered as promptly as possible and in turn. If the supply of coal came regularly and people would order their coal one week before they are out the orders taken would be delivered the next day after they were taken. Orders can be placed with a preference for dealers or coal if the public so desire but deliveries are made much quicker if the order is placed without preference. The dealers are doing their utmost in getting the coal and in getting it distributed as quickly as possible.

ANNA HELD TO VISIT NEWARK IN THE NEAR FUTURE

At last Anna Held, famous for years as a French vaudeville actress, and who was the rage in New York for several seasons, is coming to Newark.

Manager Geo. M. Fenberg has been notified by his eastern representatives that they have secured Anna Held for an engagement in this city and asked for February 29. Manager Fenberg accepted the terms named and gave her the date.

The local manager has been getting business for the larger attractions and this fact is well known to all the big booking agencies and they are desirous of placing this city on their routing lists. The hustling manager of the Auditorium theater has placed Newark on the theatrical map, and it is again one of the desirable cities for all bookings.

In a personal note to Manager Fenberg, with whom she is well acquainted, Miss Held states that she has a new repertoire of songs, but will render the song which made her popular when she first came to America, "I Just Can't Make My Eyes Behave," only Miss Held sings it with a delightful French accent.

The hustling Auditorium theater manager has played Anna Held at five different times in theaters which he has managed and always to capacity business, which, no doubt, will be the prevailing order when she fills her Newark engagement.

SOCIAL EVENTS

SOCIETY EDITOR, AUTO 'PHONE 25125.

The regular weekly meeting of the Monday Talks was held at the home of Mrs. W. W. Neal, North Fifth street, yesterday and the program arranged for the day was especially featured by the excellent talk given by Prof. Murphy of the faculty of the Newark high school. Prof. Murphy spoke on the "Philippines," giving his lecture from actual experiences he encountered while teaching there for two years. He also illustrated his talk with a number of curios collected while he was on the islands.

Mrs. W. L. Prout gave an interesting paper on "American Caves and Caverns," and Mrs. Roderic Jones talked on the "Hawaiian Islands."

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Knights of St. John will initiate a class of new members and a banquet will be served following the initiation. The initiation and banquet will be held in the Knights of Columbus rooms, West Main street, Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, and the members of the organization are invited to attend.

Mrs. Cecil Bigbee entertained the members of the Mignonette club at her home, Hudson avenue, Thursday. The hours were devoted to crocheting and knitting, and luncheon was served the members and a number of guests.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Bell, South Ohio avenue, Columbus, are entertaining this evening at the Athletic club, Columbus, with a large dancing party. Among the guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wieland of Newark.

The members of the A. F. F. W. will entertain at the Elks club, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with cards and knitting for the benefit of the work of the organization. Tables will be arranged for bridge and those who do not play will enjoy a social afternoon knitting. Refreshments will be served and many hostesses are planning to entertain parties of their own on that day in conjunction with the benefit.

Anderson—Brown. At the First Presbyterian church Monday afternoon the marriage of Miss Frances Brown of Newark, to Mr. Bryan Anderson of Johnstown, was solemnized by the Rev. Calvin G. Hazlett, using the ring ceremony of the Presbyterian church. The bride's mother and Mrs. Minnie Spees an aunt. The young couple will make their home in Johnstown.

MUSIC

(By Mrs. Joseph B. Sprague.) Ethel Leginska, the pianist, that picturesque and weird genius, appeared last evening in the Auditorium theater in the most remarkable piano recital ever given in this city. Mme. Leginska, whose meteoric career has been short of phenomenal, is one of the most unique figures before the American public. It would be scarcely safe to say she is the greatest pianist living, but unquestionably, as a pianist, she is the biggest box-office attraction in this country. She scores effects with her playing that is the despair of all other artists. She reaches the people by her wonderful magnetism which never fails to fascinate, and while she is one of the few artists who gets her work over the footlights, her unique artistic has, at the same time, gained her a high place in the music-world.

Last night she won an unqualified success in a program of euphonious arrangement. What the audience lacked in size was made up in enthusiasm as storms of applause greeted every number, and she was more than generous in her response with encores. Her program opened with two Scarlatti numbers—"Pastorale" and "Capriccio"—in which she delighted her audience with her dainty simplicity. In her second number her individuality was more marked. The Chopin Etude being an auspicious prelude to the more taxing work of the B-flat Minor Sonata, of all Sonatas the one most widely known and loved. The Sonata was a noble achievement in which she revealed her marvelous mastery of the piano. The funeral march was inspiring in its tonal effects and somber beauty. Two more Chopin numbers were offered in contrasting moods in which polished presentation and classic beauty were obtained. The "Berceuse," delicate in sheer loveliness of tones and the climax being reached in the "Polonaise" which revealed her marvellous force and virility in the performance. The Chopin group she displayed wondrous poetic feeling, an exquisite singing tone of ravishing beauty in all cantilene passages, while in other moments her inspiring upbuilding of tone and the ringing chords of her climaxes stirred the pulses.

A bizarre offering riotous with color was the Oriental number, followed by the tinkling "Music Box," both delightfully rendered. In the Liszt numbers her fiery genius found expression in bursts of riotous playing. There was seemingly no limit to the prodigious technical equipment of this artist whose wrists are like steel in their surety. The "Cumpanella" was an exhibition of amazing virtuosity. Her interpretation of the "Mazepa" number showed moments of inspiration that clearly found sympathy with her audience. The breathless tempo was dazzling in the faultless display of technique in her brilliancy of the bravura passages and in the sonority of the sustained parts.

The entire program was most satisfying and assuredly should Mme. Leginska appear here at some future date her performance would be greeted by a much larger house than that of last night, but certainly not more appreciative of her tremendous art.

PARTIES FAIL TO AGREE ON PEACE TERMS

(Associated Press Telegram.)

Amsterdam, Monday, Jan. 14.—The Wolff Bureau, the semi-official news agency of Berlin, publishes a Brest-Litovsk dispatch as follows: "A committee of Germans, Austro-Hungarians and Russians, for the discussion of territorial questions held three long sittings on Friday and Saturday. It was agreed that the first paragraph of the peace treaty should be a clause announcing that the state of war between the parties had been concluded."

"The Germans proposed a peace treaty clause reading: 'The contracting parties have resolved henceforth to live in peace and friendship.' Leon Trotsky, the Bolshevik foreign minister refused to endorse this, declaring that it was 'a decorative phrase, which does not describe the relations which in the future will exist between the Russian and German people.'"

"It was confirmed that the evacuation of occupied territory by both parties should take place on the basis of full reciprocity, so evacuation of the central powers of Russian territory would synchronize with evacuation by Russia of the occupied regions in Austria-Hungary, Turkey and Persia. Later, Persia was struck out, as not being a belligerent party, and M. Trotsky proposed to add the following: 'Russia undertakes as speedily as possible to remove her troops from neutral Persia.'"

"He said he had no other ground for this than a desire to emphasize the fact of Poland, Courland and Lithuania to the negotiations, and against the Russian government against a neutral country."

The Wolff Bureau report shows that the discussion concerning the date of the evacuation was broken off by the parties failing to agree. A long discussion concerning which parts of the occupied territory should be evacuated also resulted in a disagreement.

A prolonged debate arose over the question of admitting representatives of Poland, Courland and Lithuania to the negotiations, and the question of what constituted self-determination by these provinces. The discussion became embittered, and the only result was a protest by General Hoffman of the German delegation, against the tone of the Russian delegation, which he said 'speaks as if it stood victorious in conditions and could dictate conditions.'"

GRANVILLE

(Special to The Advocate.)

Granville, Jan. 15.—The Travelers were able to give an excellent account of themselves Monday afternoon, and were rewarded by finding the lecture room comfortable and the program on Central American activities most instructive and interesting. Mrs. Lillie Prouty, in a carefully prepared paper, too comprehensive in its scope to quote, presented a long list of the "Manufactures of the whole country. Despite the abundance of mahogany and the immense turnout of solid mahogany furniture, it is not exported to any great extent because of the high cost of shipping. Mrs. Susan Bawden followed with "Other Products and Industries"—a long list presented with conscientious fidelity. Mrs. Bawden prefaced her regular topic with an interesting account of work as carried on in an Akron rubber factory where government dirigibles are being turned out, and where her son Arthur worked during vacation.

Mrs. A. K. Herrick led the Round Table discussion of the "Workmen's Compensation Act," ably assisted by Mrs. Lapp and Mrs. Eschman. New Jersey was the first of the twenty-one states to adopt the law—Ohio being one of them.

Mrs. Ullman stated that the Dayton Metal Products company furnishes each of its 2,500 employees a thousand dollars insurance without a dollar's cost to the individual. The club voted $15 to war relief. Mrs. Robert Briggs and Mrs. J. M. Geary being named as a committee to determine which organization can use it to best advantage.

The King's Daughters will hold an afternoon and evening meeting in their rooms Wednesday. Supper will be served at 5:30 and important work will be turned out.

The crowd which filled the Baptist church auditorium yesterday morning, to greet Lieutenant Paul Perigord, of the French army, broke all records, both for numbers and for enthusiasm, and there were scores who were unable to attend by reason of conflicting duties, several of whom went to Newark to hear the evening lecture.

President C. W. Chamberlain, who went to Chicago Thursday evening to attend several important meetings of College Presidents, and Baptist laymen, expecting to return on Sunday morning, was detained by the blockade in railroad traffic occasioned by the blizzard. He was represented at the platform yesterday by Prof. Fred Boughton, secretary of Denison University. Prof. C. D. Coons, mayor of Granville, and chairman of the local draft board, appeared on the platform as representatives of the village and introduced Lieut. Perigord in a brief but happy manner. There was no musical program except the usual chapel music led by the choir, and Miss Ferrar at the organ. "The Lord is in His Holy Temple," Prof. Boughton read one verse of Scripture, which under the circumstances was as significant as a twenty-minute sermon. "He that findeth his life shall lose it, and he that loseth his life for my sake, shall find it. Among the people of low people in the audience were noted: Mr. and Mrs. Bainbridge and Mrs. Fred Wright of Newark.

Prof. and Mrs. August Odebrecht were hosts at luncheon yesterday to Lieut. Paul Perigord, the distinguished guest of Denison University and Granville village.

Messrs. Samuel Beit and J. E. McGaw left today for Newport News where they have accepted positions on a government building contract.

Shortage of gas during the blizzard Saturday and Sunday is responsible for a fresh crop of bursted water pipes in this vicinity.

Mrs. Ernest Johnson and Mrs. J. R. Fitzgibbon of Newark attended the central powers of Russian territory which was the Lincoln luncheon of Miss Eleanor Johnson in Shepherdson Commons.

VICTIMS OF THE CAMP TRAGEDY BURIED TODAY

(Associated Press Telegram.)

Kansas City, Jan. 15.—Funeral services for three of the victims of Captain Lewis R. Whisler, who were slain with an axe in the robbery of the army bank at Camp Funston, Kans., last Friday night were held today.

Six army officers from Camp Funston were active pall bearers at the funeral of C. Fuller Winters, vice president of the Federal Reserve bank of this city, of which the army bank was a branch. The services for Mr. Winters and for Carl W. Ohlson were held at Johns City churches.

The body of John W. Janel, editor of Camp Funston at Camp Funston, was taken to Springfield, Mo.

DISCOVERS NEW ISLANDS.

(Associated Press Telegram.)

Fairbanks, Alaska, Jan. 15.—Several new large Arctic islands were discovered northwest of Banks land in the spring of 1916 by Vilhjalmur Stefansson, the Arctic explorer, according to Captain A. Lane, who arrived here last night from the Arctic ocean, bringing direct news from the explorer, who he says is spending the 1917-18 winter in the northern seas at Bartel island. The explorer claimed the new lands for Canada.

Milady's Boudoir

Neck and Throat Treatment.

For a woman who is troubled with a neck and throat that are not the aids to her beauty she wishes, it would advise the following exercises. Lie flat on your back on a couch or bed, with the head hanging far down over the side, then bring the head up and over until the chin touches the chest. Repeat until tired. This will develop the muscles along the front of the throat.

Next lie face down, with the head still hanging far over, and bring it back and forward as far as possible. Stretch as far in each direction as possible. Now take a reclining position and elevate the body so you will rest on your head and heels. Rest your hand on the floor to retain your balance. Then lie on the side, with your head to the side, so that the greater part of its weight rests upon the side of your neck. This will fill out the hollows in the sides of the neck.

Sit before a desk or table with your hands resting firmly in front of you. Lay your head on your hand, and press forward and down with your head as vigorously as possible. Now turn slightly so that the right elbow is on the table. Rest the right side of the head on the palm of the right hand and press sideways any down with the head. Do the same with the left side of the head and with the hand.

Our Boys and Girls

It is important for every mother to know whether her boys and girls are fit for school. Many children fall in their studies and lay the foundation for a lifetime of ill health simply because their well meaning but ignorant parents force them to attend school when they are not in good physical condition. A child is not fit for school unless he shows a steady gain in weight. His chest should be firm, his bones well shaped and every part of his body gradually rounding into normal shape. He should be able to stand on his feet kinds of wholesome food and his digestive organs should be in perfect working condition.

Every night should find him getting sound, healthy sleep and, whether awake or asleep, he should always breathe through his nose. His skin not only of his face, but of his whole body, should be clear and rosy. His teeth should be sound, his breath sweet and his tongue clear.

During the first few years of a child's life, it is necessary only to add his body to indoor temperatures and, suitably clad, to varying outdoor temperatures. The child should not be given even mildly cold baths before he is three or four years of age and then only a mere sponging of the body in the morning. Cold showers and douches at this age are detrimental.

Rheumatism is a dangerous disease, and anyone who has the slightest taint of it should drive it from the system as soon as possible. Read what Rheuma did for this sufferer:

"For five years I suffered with articular rheumatism, having bunches on my elbow, feet and wrists. I took everything I could get with no relief. I saw your ad. and was greatly improved before I had used two bottles, and was cured before I had finished the third. I thank God for Rheuma and that I am free from rheumatism today. If anyone wishes information from me I will write them. I think Rheuma is a miracle."

AMUSEMENTS

AUDITORIUM.

"The Woman God Forgot." An event of importance is the showing today and tomorrow of the Artcraft feature, "The Woman God Forgot" and the Spirit of the Aztecs. No other than the celebrated Geraldine Farrar. Out of the legendary mists of an ancient civilization is revealed to the picture fans of Newark a feminine personality displaying all the rich, romantic charm of semi-barbarous Tezcam a princess of the Aztecs, imbued with a fiery life through the art of the only Geraldine Farrar.

None in history can there be a existence typified of such a vital import to the development of the North American continent. And I know of no actress of the stage or screen today who is better fitted to bring into life this strange woman, whose beauty and character was the admiration of the conquering Spaniards. Clad in magnificent spotted robes made of the skins of wild beasts, soft filmy garments of delicate texture, her breast plates made of hammered gold, trimmed with virgin white feathers, and her crown a glittering headplate of gold, dotted with rare and costly gems and surmounted with barbaric plumage, this daughter of the ill-fated Montezuma will present the most striking picture that Newark fans have ever had the pleasure of looking at. "The Woman God Forgot" is an Artcraft super-drama and is something out of the ordinary for pictures and with Miss Farrar and Wallace Reid in the leading roles, much can be expected. Miss Farrar is remembered here by her clever work in "Joan, The Woman." That this is a worthy successor goes without saying, for the very mysticism of the theme lifts the story out of the ordinary path of photodrama.

The Hearst-Pathe News, also the last episode of "The Retreat of the Germans at Battle of Arras" is seen.

"The Princess Pat."

Admirers of Victor Herbert's enchanting style of music will welcome the announcement that on Thursday night, January 17 at the Auditorium "The Princess Pat," the Cort Theatre, New York musical comedy success will be presented. No American composer has a better knowledge of color in orchestration, greater ability in creating atmosphere, faculty to compose more delightful melodies or to produce a more enjoyable opera than Victor Herbert at his best and he without a doubt, was in the mood when he wrote "The Princess Pat." To this his latest work he has contributed twenty numbers, every one of which has been classed a gem, but it is not alone the music that goes to make the picture so charming an offering at the book and lyrics of Henry Blossom are especially brilliant and in perfect keeping with the excellent score. The play has a real plot and in it, Grace Holbrook is engaged to marry Anthony O'Brien, an old man of means. She has permitted the engagement in order to save her uncle, General Holbrook, from bankruptcy. O'Brien's escape from bankruptcy, with his new found friend, Tony Darrow, who lives by his wits, appears on the scene and straightway falls in love with Grace. O'Brien, Sr., is rather gay and becomes infatuated with the Princess of Montezuma, otherwise Pat, wife of an Italian nobleman. The Prince has been neglecting his wife, and she concludes to teach her husband and also O'Brien a lesson.

Seats now selling.

The Honor System.

"The Honor System," William Fox's intensely human melodrama, while in its gripping appeal tugs strongly at the heart strings, is far from being a somber picture of life in its most distressing phases. This gripping drama, the production of which the state of Arizona lent its entire resources and which vividly portrays conditions along the Mexican border, has been justly described as "the greatest human story ever told." Its humaneness lies not only in its faithful depiction of the struggle between virtue and the unseemly powers of graft, but in the flashes of humor that light the picture like flashes of sunlight.

Many of these touches are inspirations on the part of A. Walsh of the Fox Film Corporation, whose masterly work in directing "The Honor System" stamps him as one of the foremost directors of the cinema world. "The Honor System" will be screened at the Auditorium next Friday and Saturday.

"Reaching for the Moon."

"Reaching for the Moon," Douglas Fairbanks' latest production for Artcraft, at the Auditorium theatre, next Sunday, was written by Anita Loos and John Emerson, expressly for the noted star, who fairly revels in the part of Alexis, a youth occupying a humble position in a button factory until he discovered he was the missing heir to a European throne. Artcraft has been lavish with this production, which is crammed full of humorous situations and thrilling incidents.

The adventures of Alexis are extremely trying, and Fairbanks is afforded ample opportunity of displaying the extraordinary athletic skill for which he is noted. Alexis learns that the royal road is a rocky one. He is beset at every step by assassins, who constantly hatch plots against him. Terrific encounters take place, and he escapes with his life only by virtue of his physical prowess.

ALHAMBRA.

When "The Good for Nothing," the new World-Picture Brady-Made, Wednesday and Thursday, the patrons of this playhouse will have the opportunity of seeing Carlyle Blackwell, Muriel Ostriche and Evelyn Greely in a thoroughly delightful and pleasing picture in which Mr. Blackwell is seen in a different sort of characterization. He takes the part of Jack, the good-for-nothing, who comes back to his mother after failing to make good. He finds that his ambitious mother has married again and the son and daughter of her new husband look upon him as an interloper. He finds that the son is a bad egg and he sets about to right the wrong which the young man has done. Eventually Jack succeeds in doing this but only after some remarkable experiences. All three of the stars have parts that they are particularly suited to play. Mr. Blackwell's role is a very pleasing one and the whole production is a delight. "The Good for Nothing" is a fascinating, pleasing story. See it.

GRAND.

Alice Joyce. "The Fettered Woman." Greater Vitagraph feature, is a picturization of "Anne's Bridge," a widely read novel by Robert W. Chambers. It is the story of a young woman called from college by the tragic death of her father. She is the victim of a plot to get her estate, as a result of which she is sent to a reformatory institution for three years, returning to her home in Anne's Bridge a "branded" woman, avoided by all her former friends. This brand, however, does not prevent the young man she refuses to marry from investigating her life, when the real facts are known for the first time. At the Grand tonight.

LYRIC.

Nancy Boyer. Nancy Boyer is back in Newark and has opened an engagement of one week at the Lyric with her own dainty comedy playlet, "Her First Kiss," which proved to be one of the most delightful acts that have ever been seen in vaudeville in Newark. The sketch tells of a demure little Quaker girl, which Nancy plays in her own way, that wins her audience from the start and holds them to the finish. She is supported by Arthur Chatterdon, who is well known to our theatregoers, and with Henry Testa and Jan Tarr presents a company of star excellence in every way.

VOICES MUST BE PLEASANT

Hospital Nurses Undergo Course of Training in Some Institutions to Cultivate Refined Speech.

At the success or failure of a physician, in some cases at least, determined by his tongue, how much more important is this matter of speech to the nurse, who must be constantly with the patient, and whose every look and gesture are watched—targets for criticism, silent or open," writes Dr. Irving W. Voorhees in the Nurse. "It is said that in some hospitals this question of refined, pleasing speech has become a part of the nurse's course of training, and that she is demerited for disregard of the principles set forth by her teachers. Although I have no personal knowledge of these hospitals, it is certainly a consummation devoutly to be wished that every one who comes into the sick room should know how to speak softly and agreeably."

Doctor Voorhees says European nations realize the importance of the nurse's voice and insist upon it far more than we do. And any woman who plans to become a hospital nurse and has not a pleasing voice already should start at once to cultivate one. The sick are very sensitive to voices; the blind are especially affected by harsh voices, so much so that some wealthy blind men will not permit a person whose voice is not pleasant to come near them.

Arrive and Depart.

"Arrivals" and "Departures" have a definite place in French trench philosophy. When the American troops first entered the trenches their French comrades were very anxious to have them distinguish accurately between the noise of "arrives" and "departs." "I thought they were talking harbor clearances at first," said one Yankee lad. "Then I heard a low, whining sound and a shell exploded behind us. 'Un arrive,' said my companion. He signified that it was a present from the Germans. Soon there was a louder, sharper sound. It was a responsive roar from our own batteries. 'Un depart,' he said with great satisfaction. 'Volla!' we had it. The exchange of artillery fire is, after all, a matter of 'arrivals' and 'departures.' Needless to say, the 'departs' enjoy the wider popularity."

Pencils in Japan.

An untoward result of the war has been the creation of a lead-pencil industry in Japan. In 1911 Japan imported 65,000,000 pencils, most of which came from America and Germany. But with the opening of the European conflict German sources of supply were cut off and native manufacturers, who had been producing only in comparatively small quantities, seized their opportunity and made the most of it. In 1914 Japan exported over nine million pencils and in 1916 the number had increased to 168,000,000. There is strong indication, observes a writer, that many of the markets won by the Orientals will be held by them after the war, for they have the advantage of very cheap labor. Most of the lead which they use is imported from India and this country.

AN OFFICIAL STORY TELLER

Literary in Canada Find Special Feature for the Entertainment of Children is Worth While.

In several of the public libraries of Canada story telling to children has for some years been a special feature, says an exchange. Each Saturday morning from fifty to one hundred children assemble at the library in a room set apart for the purpose and called the "Children's Room." The ages of the children vary from six to fourteen years.

At St. John, New Brunswick, story telling has been continued now for three years. This year it has been found advisable to divide the children according to age and to hold two classes of half an hour each. The work has steadily grown in interest, and the demand for books of a less trivial type justifies the work of the committee in charge. During the summer, when opportunity offers and a story-teller of note is a guest of the city, notice is given to the library, and it is often possible to have a special session.

Best and Wheat Food Value. That there is more food value in one acre of beets than in four of wheat is the contention of German agricultural scientists.

 The funeral services of Mrs. Dudley Van Doren were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of her sister, Mrs. Henry C. Shotts of Granville. Rev. E. D. Barnes officiating. Interment was made at the Granville cemetery.

Funeral of Albert Kneeland.
 The funeral services of Albert Kneeland were held today at 2 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. May M. Kussmaul, 81 Spring street. Burial was made at Cedar Hill cemetery.

Funeral of E. F. Heiney.
 The funeral services of Benjamin F. Heiney were conducted this morning at 10 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. F. M. B. Winkle, 493 North Fourth street. Rev. L. C. Sparks officiated. The remains were placed in the vault at Cedar Hill cemetery and will later be shipped to his former home in Indiana.

Babette Recknagel.
 Babette Recknagel died at the home of her son, Albert Recknagel, 22 Granville street this morning of the infirmities of old age. She was born in Seunberg, Germany, May 27, 1827, and was 90 years, 7 months and 18 days of age at the time of her death. She came to America in 1859 and was married in Milwaukee, Wis., in 1864. She is survived by two sons, Albert of Granville street and Otto of Maps, California.

Funeral arrangements will not be made until word is received from the son in California, but the interment will be made in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Funeral of Richard Markham.
 The funeral of Richard Markham, who died at his home, 199 West Main street, yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock, will be held from the residence Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Interment will be made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

In Loving Remembrance.
 Mrs. Sadie Bell Casey, 4142 East 93rd, Cleveland, Ohio.
 As a rose blooms forth in the sunshine or is blasted with the snow; so our life either blooms or is blasted, as the seasons come and go. We gaze on the rose and know full well it cannot live on forever, our life fades too like the beautiful rose when the soul from the body dost sever. God watches over the flowers so rare with his omnipotent hand, and gathers his jewels one by one to adorn the Heavenly land. This time in our home the call has come. God sent the death angel—meek and mild—He asked for our dear Sadie who has lived her life as a God child the years passed by a day; but the earthly cares are o'er, she came and took our Sadie away. "Thy hand our Father sometimes to say: 'Thy will not ours, be done.' Not so with Sadie for sinless and pure, she lived her life, and the victory won, we may build monuments grand and high and gain honor in this world, yet we must be like her a child in heart, if heaven we wish to gain. Our Father in heaven says: 'suffer children to come unto me.'"

God called our Sadie to rest October 28, 1917, and we bow our heads in submission the Father He knoweth best. Our Sadie so dear will not be alone. Sisters and brothers have gone on before. Father and mother with outstretched arms stand waiting for her on the other shore. Glad will be the meeting when we all reach there with none of earth's sorrows to hear. Our life like the rose fades away, but the spirit of those who live aright ascend to the heavenly throne.

Let those sorrowing ones who remain find consolation in God's divine grace and wait patiently the time of departing to that bright and better land, where we shall meet our dear one face to face. Her loving husband, Daniel L. Casey.

Mrs. Casey was buried on Tuesday, October 31 at St. Louisville, Ohio. 1-15-4-11*

Puzzled Over Disposition of Enemy Aliens

(Associated Press Telegram)
 Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., Jan. 15.—Military authorities are more puzzled than ever over what disposition to make of the 1500 enemy alien selects here, following the exposure among them of operations of so-called "exemption purchasers." All of the aliens are subjects of countries hostile to the United States and its allies, it is said.

Some question has been raised as to the legality of holding the aliens, since they are admittedly subjects of hostile foreign powers. Officers in the division judge advocates' office here point, however, to a ruling from Provost Marshal General Crowder to the effect that such men shall be considered as having waived all claim to exemption if they failed to protest their induction on the ground of being enemy aliens at the time of their enlistment into the national army.

Since their arrival in camp, when they were collected in the training battalions of the 158th depot brigade, they have been treated and trained as ordinary selects although officers assert they never can fight for the United States in view of their status. However, in the light of the ruling from General Crowder's office they must be considered as having entered the service on the same plans as other selects.

From the standpoint of the ruling indicated the "exemption purchasers" are liable to punishment for interfering with the operation of the draft, officials say. The military authorities have been on the trail of such operatives ever since the first aliens arrived here. So far they seem to have confined their efforts to selects of Austrian birth.

Officers in the training battalions here, in which the aliens are quartered, have repeatedly expressed the hope that the war department would take some definite action in the cases of the aliens. They state that there has been no change in the situation in the past few weeks. It is intimated in some quarters that the exposures of the past few days may bring immediate action in the matter.

Dependents of men who have committed acts which render them liable to military penalties, such as forfeiture of over half their pay during the period of confinement, are protected by a ruling from division headquarters today. Both the comptroller of the currency and the officers here involved have ruled that the pay of such men who have been sentenced by military tribunals must be distributed so as to satisfy first, the compulsory allotment; second, obligations to the government, including fines and forfeitures, and third, voluntary allotments. But the fines and forfeitures will not be reduced by virtue of the fact that the compulsory allotments must be paid. They will be spread out over a longer time, it was said, at division headquarters.

Military authorities have ordered the number of taxis and busses to accommodate traffic between Chillicothe and Camp Sherman brought up to 100 at once. T. J. Fay, director of transportation, is said to have had seventy-two cars in service today, with the remainder expected by the end of the week. Officials believe that the additional cars will take care of all demands.

Candidates in the officers' training school are being initiated into the latest developments of bayonet fighting this week under the instruction of the non-commissioned experts, in addition to their routine training. At the close of the present week final assignment of candidates to training platoons will be made. It was said at the school headquarters that about forty men in the infantry company desire transfer to the artillery, while 18 candidates in the single battery have already been transferred to the infantry companies at their own request.

One hundred additional officers who have been stationed at Camp Wadsworth, arrived here yesterday and were temporarily attached to units in camp. It is likely that they will attend the school for line officers which has just been started.

PUPILS WIN PRIZES OFFERED BY LOCAL LUMBER COMPANY

The prize-winners in the essay contest, conducted by the R. B. White Lumber company, have been announced. Recently the manager, R. B. White, offered prizes for the best essays written by school children on the subject: "The Advantages of Owning Your Own Home," and out of the number of responses the following were selected:

Elizabeth Keyes, daughter of Councilman Keyes, of the high school, first prize.

Geneva Stephenson, Buckingham street, of high school, second prize.

In the eighth grade: First prize, Ralph Allen, North Fourth street; second prize, Carl Sparks, North Sixth street.

In the seventh grade: First prize, Paul Stull, son of Rev. C. H. Stull; second prize, Martha Grace Smith, daughter of P. Smith, Hudson avenue.

Only one contestant entered from the country—Miss Glenna Rine—who was given first prize.

Out of the entire number of contributions, Elizabeth Keyes and Geneva Stephenson were selected, and these two essays will be sent to Chicago and entered in the American Lumber dealers' contest.

REGULARS OUT IN MORNING AGAIN AT NIGHT

"In again; out again!" Such must be the refrain of Mabel Rice and "Granny" Elben, two police court regulars who were released Monday morning after serving out a fine, only to be taken into custody again that evening. They were fined $5 and costs in Mayor Atherton's court this morning.

John Trehey, Pittsburg, Pa., was taken from the Lyric theater last evening on the complaint of the manager, Harry Eldon. Trehey was charged with being drunk and resisting an officer, and was fined $5 and costs on each charge.

"If I give you a nickel will you promise not to look upon the wine when it is red?" said the ministerial-looking philanthropist. "Wine?" gasped the weary wayfarer. "Go! Where kin youse git wine fer a nickel? Put me next, will youse, Bo?"

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities. You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 30c and 25c per box. All druggists.

BOARD EXPLAINS FILING APPEALS TO HIGHER BODY

Members of the local draft board. President A. A. Stasel, Dr. W. H. Knauss and Clerk Walter Symons, have been busy filing the questionnaires which have been returned and have also been busy answering numerous questions regarding exemption claims and appeals.

For the benefit of the registrants board members today gave an Advocate representative information regarding appeals to the district board, when they need not and when they may be taken. All registrants should read this carefully as it is an official announcement of the board and governs in all cases, regardless of what information or impression of the case the registrant might previously have acquired.

The local board is now engaged in classifying the registrants of this city and for their information as to their rights after classification we desire to make known to them that the local board makes no classification on industrial or agricultural grounds. The district board at Columbus, has the sole jurisdiction to classify upon the two grounds so mentioned. The local board makes the classification as though no claim for deferred classification on industrial or agricultural grounds were made. The only claims considered by the local board are those involving deferred classification other than that based upon occupation.

All claims for deferred classification on occupational grounds are by this board sent to the district board at Columbus and will there be acted upon in the first instance and any registrant receiving notice of classification by the local board need not take an appeal where the only claim for deferred classification is based upon industrial or agricultural occupations. Appeals need be taken only in cases where deferred classifications have been claimed on other grounds than that of occupation and the board has placed the registrant in a class prior to the one claimed.

A registrant whose only claim for deferred classification is based upon industrial or agricultural occupation is placed in Class 1 by the local board and without any further action on the part of the registrant, his papers are sent to the district board for their consideration of his claim for deferred classification on occupational grounds and he need give no notice of an appeal to the local board. If, however, his claim is denied by the district board he then has the right of appeal to the President.

Any registrant claiming deferred classification on account of physical unfitness for military service need not take an appeal from the classification entered by the local board. After thoroughly dissecting the regulation in regard to limited service Messrs. Stasel, Knauss and Symons have discovered that any registrant now working is eligible to be classified as fit for "limited service."

Evidently the war department figured that if a man was able to work to support himself he could work to help the government. "It is understood, however," read the draft rules, "that no individual under limited service will be asked to do labor more severe than that which he was engaged in at the time of the draft."

This means that if a registrant is in Class 1 and when called is found physically unfit for active military service, he will be held in Class 1 for limited military service. In the event that at the time of examination he is working or able to work, Provost Marshal Chowder states in his regulations issued to draft boards that men classified for limited service will not be called unless the exigencies of war make such a move necessary. Limited military service includes work behind the firing lines abroad or duties in war preparation at home.

The new interpretation means that many men who otherwise would have been relegated to Class 5 will be maintained in Class 1, but eligible only for limited service.

If found fit for service the registrant may take an appeal. To summarize: When an appeal need, or need not be taken: Registrants claiming deferred classification on account of industrial or agricultural occupations need not appeal as their papers are sent to the district board by the local board without any further action on the part of the registrant.

When a registrant has claimed deferred classification on grounds other than that of occupation and is placed in a class prior to the one claimed by him, he may then take an appeal by entering his claim of appeal upon his questionnaire at the office of the local board within five days after the mailing of the notice of his classification.

Registrants should always bear in mind that the local board has no jurisdiction to classify upon industrial or agricultural grounds and by bearing in mind the above distinction as to when an appeal may or need not be made, he can save himself an unnecessary trip to the office of the local board.

Registrants appealing at the office of the local board for the purpose of claiming an appeal, should at all times present their card bearing his order number so as to assist in more readily locating his questionnaire.

STOMACH MEDICINES ARE DANGEROUS

Harmful Acids in Stomach That Cause Indigestion Should be Neutralized With Magnesia.

Just how dangerous it is to indiscriminately dose the stomach with drugs and medicines, is often not realized until too late. It seems so simple to swallow a dose of some special mixture or take tablets of soda, pepsin, bismuth, etc., after meals, and the folly of this drugging is not apparent until, perhaps years afterward, when it is found that gastric ulcers have almost eaten their way through the stomach walls. Regrets are then unavailing; it is in the early stages when indigestion, dyspepsia, heartburn, gas, flatulence, sourness, etc., indicate excessive acidity of the stomach and fermentation of food contents that precaution should be taken. Drugs and medicines are unsuitable and often dangerous—they have little or no influence upon the harmful acid, and that is why doctors are discarding them and advising sufferers from indigestion and stomach trouble to get rid of the dangerous acid and keep the food contents sweet and wholesome by taking a little pure Bisurated Magnesia instead. Bisurated Magnesia is an absolutely pure antacid which can be readily obtained from any reliable drug store. It is absolutely harmless, is practically tasteless and a teaspoonful or two tablets taken in a little warm or cold water after meals, will usually be found quite sufficient to instantly neutralize excessive acidity of the stomach and prevent all possibility of the food fermenting.—Advertisement.
